

SUNDAY, MAY 7

▣ Luke 24:1-35 (Mark if read)

Lu 24:27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

What is the Bible really all about? We must all come to the conclusion that at the end of the day, its about Jesus! We must purpose to find Jesus in the Scripture. In addition to Jesus being all through Scripture, His presence ought to always be the underlying theme throughout our daily life.

When people get to know us, do they come to know Jesus better? As you read and study God's Word, pray that He would manifest Who He is through your life.

MONDAY, MAY 1

▣ Luke 21:20-38 (Mark if read)

Lu 21:36 Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

It is so important that we take heed to the verse above. Human nature tends to relax or let down. Christians need to be alert. We have an enemy that is trying to destroy our potential for God. Our only hope of standing strong and true for God is to keep our heads up and most importantly, PRAY.

We must be a praying people. We must walk with God. We must spend time alone with Him in His presence. We must draw spiritually from His strength every moment of every day!

QUESTIONS

1. With what will the Son of man be coming in the clouds?

SATURDAY, MAY 6

▣ Luke 23:26-56 (Mark if read)

Lu 23:43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

Jesus had been up for at least twenty-four hours. Imagine the exhaustion of delivering His soul the night before at the last Supper, being betrayed and beaten throughout the night, the trial, carrying his cross, etc... In spite of Jesus going through all that, He still managed to find the energy to care for the soul of an individual dying on a cross beside Him. We like to think that we care about people. We all are willing to care when it is convenient. What about when you are at the end of your strength? Jesus was our example to the very end—caring for the spiritual needs of others.

QUESTIONS

12. What was the place called where they took Jesus to be crucified? _____
13. For how many hours was there darkness? _____

THURSDAY, MAY 5

☐ Luke 23:1-25 (Mark if read)

Lu 23:25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

There is a lot in the Bible about exercising the will. We all have the will to make decisions in life. God has given us this gift. The question is what will you do with it? Whose will will be had in your life? With the pressure of the crowd all around you, who would you have released? Do you let Jesus have His way in your life or the flesh. You may say that you would have released Jesus, but every day you release Jesus or Barabbas. Whose will is operated at liberty in your life?

QUESTIONS

- 9. Who were made friends? _____
- 10. Did Jesus do anything worthy of death? _____
- 11. Whose voices prevailed? _____

TUESDAY, MAY 2

☐ Luke 22:1-30 (Mark if read)

Lu 22:27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

The disciples were arguing with each other about who was the greatest disciple—Wow...really??? Imagine what Jesus must have thought about such vain, self-absorbed thinking. Let us remember that Jesus has commissioned us to be sent as He was sent—to be a servant. We can be tempted to compare who is "greater" between our contemporaries. We long for significance or relevance in our own sphere of influence. The most impotent thing is that we be the servants God wants us to be. That's the greatest thing we can do for God—serve Him and serve His people.

▣ Luke 22:31-46 (Mark if read)

Lu 22:31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

Satan does desire to have everyone of us. Peter had a special purpose for life, and God intended to use him. Peter had much to learn. He thought he was strong, yet he was weak. Jesus, knowing he would fall, encouraged him that he should get back up after falling and be strengthened further. It was his commission to strengthen the church—this we see fulfilled in his life as well as the 2 letters he wrote that became Scripture. There is hope for us all after falling down. Get up and strengthen others.

▣ Luke 22:47-71 (Mark if read)

Lu 22:62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

The end of denying Jesus Christ is always a bitter end. Peter knew what He had done. He was able to dismiss Jesus from his life while Jesus wasn't physically near. When he made eye contact with Christ, he could not hide. He knew that he was guilty of betraying his best Friend. We all have the ability to disregard God's presence. Somehow we can put Him out of our mind, but when the Holy Spirit gets our attention, we feel the bitterness of our guilt. Peter's greatest joy came after the resurrection when he was reconciled to Christ. God used Him again beginning at Pentecost when he preached a life-changing message to 3,000 converts.
