

SUNDAY, JUNE 18

- ▣ Acts 26 (Mark if read)

Ac 26:19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

"The heavenly vision" of Paul is symbolic in many ways to every Christian who has a real encounter with Jesus Christ. Perhaps it occurs the moment you get saved. Maybe it happens later when you surrender your will once and for all and die to self before God. Every Christian ought to be faithful to the "heavenly vision" laid upon their heart. Whatever it is that God wants to you to do, do it! It may be a vision of the future or a daily, moment by moment leading—whatever the case, follow and obey the leading of the Lord! If you do, you will have the favor of God and a testimony that encourages others...just like Paul!

QUESTIONS

16. At what time did Paul see the light? _____
17. What kept Paul from being set free? _____

MONDAY, JUNE 12

▣ Acts 21:18-40 (Mark if read)

Ac 21:19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. 20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord...

Jealousy often tempts the people of God when things go well for others. A competitive spirit can be dangerous among zealous laborers who seek to build the work of God. Beginning to compare and getting excited over achieving more success than others is not pleasing in the sight of God. We are on the same team. If someone else experiences God's blessings, we ought to rejoice! Ask the Lord to cleanse you of a jealous spirit towards another brother or sister in Christ. Being able to rejoice with others helps to create a blessed atmosphere!

QUESTIONS

1. What was Paul accused of teaching to forsake? _____
2. What did they "go about" or attempt to do to Paul? _____
3. What did the multitude cry concerning Paul? _____

SATURDAY, JUNE 17

▣ Acts 25 (Mark if read)

Ac 25:11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.

Paul had no problem accepting responsibility for his actions! He was certainly willing and ready to die if he had done something worthy of death. Paul stood confidently before the council with a clean conscience. There is nothing like strong faith in God and a clean conscience that will enable one to stand boldly for the Lord in any circumstance. Having sin in our lives creates a great deal of fear and anxiety. Being filled with guilt and wondering who is watching us will hinder our effectiveness for the Lord.

FRIDAY, JUNE 16

▣ Acts 24 (Mark if read)

Ac 24:5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

Its amazing how the world perceives Christians. The word "pestilent" literally means "a disease." That's how they saw Paul. They see us as the problem. They see us as the trouble. They see us as unloving. They are so blinded to the fact that SIN is the problem. God's people are the most loving people in the world. They consider us enemies because we tell the truth rather than what everyone "wants" to hear. Don't let the world intimidate you. Love them. Forgive them. Be patient. They need your steadfastness even though they may not even know it.

QUESTIONS

- 11. To whom did Paul have a conscience void of offense? _____
- 12. How long did Felix leave Paul bound? _____

TUESDAY, JUNE 13

▣ Acts 22 (Mark if read)

Ac 22:13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

It must have been hard for Ananias when God told him to go and help Saul. Saul was known as one who had persecuted Christians and even delivered them to be killed. Many feared Saul. By faith, Ananias trusted God's command to receive and help this new believer. Notice the immediate acceptance as Ananias called Saul, "brother." As we serve the Lord together, it is important for us to realize that we are a part of the same family. As "born-again" saints, we are a part of the same family sharing the same Father and indwelt by the same Spirit. Sadly, many believers treat each other like enemies or opponents. This ought not to be so.

QUESTIONS

- 5. To where was Paul on the way when He met the Lord? _____

▣ Acts 23:1-15 (Mark if read)

▣ Acts 23:16-35 (Mark if read)

Ac 23:11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

Ac 23:21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

Paul was going through a tough time. He was being persecuted by the Jewish authorities and his life was on the line. I'm sure he felt fear at times, although he constantly acted in faith and courage. God gives us some insight into the intimacy Paul experienced with God in his service. God's presence encouraged Paul. As God was with Paul so will He be with us! No matter what your going through, you are not alone—BE of GOOD CHEER! The Lord is standing by you and will accompany you anywhere He sends you!!

God was working behind the scenes exposing the intentions of the enemy to key people to protect His man. Its amazing when you consider the intensity of the enemy. Forty men bound themselves with an oath to not eat or drink until they had murdered Paul! I wonder if they had to break their vow?!?! ☺ Let us not be outdone by the determination of the world. They dedicate themselves to destroy us. Let us be committed to help save them and influence their lives to be transformed for the glory of God!
