

SUNDAY, JUNE 25

▣ Romans 4 (Mark if read)

Ro 4:5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

What verse 5 is saying is that the one who is trusting in his own works to gain approval before God has something in which to boast. "Look what I did! I earned God's favor." No one is that good! When we seek justification by faith (belief), we are surrendering to the idea that our forgiveness can only come through Jesus Christ. Contrary to the mind of man, this pleases God. Simple faith and trust from a sincere heart is all that is necessary to appropriate the blood of Christ to our sinful record. Throughout our lives, it will do us well to remember that it is faith that is counted for righteousness before God.

QUESTIONS

- 15. Which Psalmist was quoted in verse 7? _____
- 16. How was Abraham's faith described? _____
- 17. THINK...What was imputed to Abraham? _____

MONDAY, JUNE 19

▣ Acts 27:1-26 (Mark if read)

Ac 27:23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

Paul made two demonstrative statements about the Angel of God who Paul affirmatively believed was the Lord Himself. First, the statement "whose I am" insinuates clearly that Paul had yielded full control of "his" life to God. Paul was saying, "I am His...I belong to the Lord." Can you make this claim? Secondly, Paul had no reservations about who it was that He served—the Lord. His actions, attitudes and motives were all to please the One He served—the Lord Jesus Christ. Who are you serving? Is God clearly your God without reservation?! Let the whole world know you are His and serve Him only!

QUESTIONS

1. What very important country was Paul going to sail to?

2. What was the name of the tempestuous wind? _____

SATURDAY, JUNE 24

▣ Romans 3 (Mark if read)

Ro 3:23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; 24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

Thank God today for the salvation that you have in Jesus Christ. Although we are sinners and have fallen woefully short of the glory of God, Jesus came to redeem (buy us back) us by His grace and through His shed blood! No none of us deserve it, but He loved us enough to all that was necessary to give us eternal life and best of all—a relationship with Him. What a gift! What a God!

QUESTIONS

11. How many are righteous before God? _____
12. How many have sinned? _____
13. How is a man justified? By _____
14. Does justification by faith make void the Law? _____

FRIDAY, JUNE 23

▣ Romans 2 (Mark if read)

Ro 2:21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

Nothing is more frustrating than listening to someone "say" one thing and "do" another. This is the nature of hypocrisy. If you are going to lead people, it is important to be an example. No one is perfect, but we must strive to model before others what we would expect of them. Nothing will make your demands more receivable than the fact that you are willing to do them first. If you want your employees to work hard, you ought to show them what diligence is all about. This goes for every Bible attribute. Before you preach it, teach it by your example!

TUESDAY, JUNE 20

▣ Acts 27:27-44 (Mark if read)

Ac 27:44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

God wants us to rescue those who are lost in the Sea of this world. There is a Hymn called "Throw Out the Lifeline." You may feel insignificant or even unable to be a help to those who are lost. At these times consider the shipwreck of Paul. Anything that can float can save a life. Some were saved on boards and some on broken pieces. You might just be a board, but you can rescue a drowning sinner. Hey! You may even be nothing more than a broken piece—you can still save a soul. Never underestimate what God can do with your life.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21

▣ Acts 28 (Mark if read)

Ac 28:30 ¶ And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

Paul's life was given to preaching the Gospel and teaching how to live for Jesus. Here he was on house arrest, yet even chains couldn't hold him back from doing the work God had called him to do. It may not have been in quite the situation that he would have envisioned, nevertheless he kept preaching. No man could stop him. What does it take to stop you? I hope you have the courage and fortitude of Paul!

THURSDAY, JUNE 22

▣ Romans 1 (Mark if read)

Ro 1:20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:

Verse 20 pretty much erases any excuse mankind can come up with to deny His existence. The very fact that anyone would or could deny the existence of the God of the Bible does so because they desire to. You would have to bury your head in the sand and flush your brains down the toilet to not see how God has clearly revealed Himself to man time after time. The fact is that man does not want God. Man does not want to be accountable to anyone or anything. This is the nature of Satan and he has deceived millions into worshipping self over the true Creator.
