

SUNDAY, JULY 14

▣ Romans 15:1-13 (Mark if read)

Ro 15:1 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

A growing Christian is an individual who is gaining strength little by little in the realm of spirituality. The word "infirmity" means a feebleness, a weakness, or an imperfection. It can also refer to a malady or sickness. First we need to strive to BE strong. Many spend there lives as weak, infirmed believers—never able to help anyone else, much less themselves. Walking with God will always get you to the place where you can help others. Help others carry their burdens. Encourage the discouraged. Lift up the fallen. Care for the vulnerable. This is the life of the mature, strong Christian—bearing others infirmities.

QUESTIONS

MONDAY, JULY 3

▣ Romans 10 (Mark if read)

Ro 10:14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

We live in a world filled with thousands of lost individuals destined to suffer for eternity being judged for their sin in a place called Hell. How sad! How tragic! Its just beyond comprehension. We know that Jesus loves the entire world and did what was necessary to pay for their sin. Unfortunately, much of the world does not know. Its our job to tell them. When—if ever—is the last time you shared the Gospel with a lost soul? If there ever was something we should be serious about, it is proclaiming to a lost world that there is a Saviour.

SATURDAY, JULY 8

▣ Romans 14 (Mark if read)

Ro 14:11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.
12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

Paul reminds the Roman Christians of the seriousness of judging one another—we will be judged. First of all, the people we can be so hard on have a judge of their own—their Creator. Stop trying to take the place of God in the lives of others. He doesn't need your help putting others in their place. In addition, you and I both have our own ISSUES to care for. Judge yourself. Get yourself ready for the judgment Seat of Christ. Its going to be pretty sobering. Bow your own knee! God has His ways of getting the attention of His own creation.

FRIDAY, JULY 7

▣ Romans 13 (Mark if read)

Ro 13:8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

Ro 13:10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

I think that the greatest problem in society is the lack of love or the misrepresentation of what love is. If we all loved the way God wants us to love, we would all be great Christians. All of the problems in our churches would be solved. If we loved one another like we should, we would not mistreat or be a stumblingblock to one another. Every command in the Bible would be obeyed if we did one of two things: love God & love people. Why don't we love? Love is born in the life of the Spirit-filled Christian...

TUESDAY, JULY 4

▣ Romans 11:1-18 (Mark if read)

Ro 11:4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

The Scripture above reminds us of the story of Elijah. He had just finished defeating the prophets of Baal through a mighty and miraculous act of God sending down fire from heaven to consume the drenched sacrifice! He now found himself running from Jezebel under threat of his life. He was tired. He became discouraged. The Lord had to remind him that he was not the only one. Realize that you are not alone. Even if you don't see them, there are thousands of Christians standing for Christ around the globe. Be encouraged by that. Keep standing!

▣ Romans 11:19-36 (Mark if read)

Ro 11:33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

On a regular basis, we ought to take time to wonder at the riches of God’s wisdom and knowledge. Paul describes the wisdom and knowledge of God in a monetary way. They are of great value. There are a lot of things in the world for which we could seek. We attribute value to material possessions, education, relationships, and so forth. More valuable than any of those is having the knowledge and wisdom of God. Seek it. Pray for it. Find it out in the Scripture. Gather it from Godly leaders. Praise God today for how amazing He is in regards to His intelligence!

▣ Romans 12 (Mark if read)

Ro 12:1 ¶ I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Paul begged the Romans—by God’s mercy—yield your lives to the Lord. Let God have your life. Decide that your life will be set apart for the Lord! It’s the least we can do! We should not allow the world to dictate how we act, talk, think, dress, etc. We should allow the Lord to change us from the inside out that His will might be accomplished. What is that will? That we might be made like our Saviour, Jesus Christ!
