DAILY SCRIPTURE READING: Titus 2

□ MARK IF READ BONUS □ PROVERBS 24 □ PSALM 116-120

TITUS 2:4-5

That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

The older Christian ladies have a great responsibility to model and teach to the next generation the truths found in verses 4-5. God has a plan for the family, and Satan has fought to destroy it. It has been said that a nation rises or falls on the morals of its women. Its sad that men have yielded their God-given authority to their female counterpart. I do blame the men chiefly for our many troubles in society. The lack of leadership in many cases has propelled the women the fill the voids that have been left. Just remember, girls, that God has a plan, a purpose, and a place where you can flourish and make an enormous difference for the cause of Christ.

QUESTIONS

- 18. What two things should Christians deny? _____
- 19. What is it that Christ desires to redeem us from? _____

MONDAY—SEPTEMBER 18

DAILY SCRIPTURE READING: 1 Timothy 6

MARK IF READ BONUS PROVERBS 18 PSALM 86-90

1 TIMOTHY 6:6

But godliness with contentment is great gain.

In our day, there are a lot of “things” that attract the “lusts of the flesh” and the “lusts of the eyes.” There are so many “new” toys, games, and gadgets that aim to fill our lives with “fun.” The truth is that if we keep our eyes on the ever productive world market, we will never really be satisfied. The world always leaves us wanting more. When we decide that we are going to be content with what we have, we have just become more rich than every greedy person in the world. The secret to being rich is wanting what you already have. When you “want what you have,” you’ll “have what you want.”

QUESTIONS

1. How much did we bring into this world? _____
2. What two things should we be content with? _____
3. What should we be “rich” in? _____

SATURDAY—SEPTEMBER 23

DAILY SCRIPTURE READING: Titus 1

MARK IF READ BONUS PROVERBS 23 PSALM 111-115

TITUS 1:15

Unto the pure all things are pure; but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

When you have a pure mind you tend to see things in a pure way. Many of the devious, corrupt, and perverted thoughts that creep into the minds of God’s people happen because they have allowed themselves to become devious, corrupt and perverted. A child doesn’t come to the conclusion of an adult in many circumstances because they have an innocent outlook on life. If we’re not careful, we will see everyone around us as a crook and a liar. We will be negative—always expecting the worst. Challenge your mind. Purify your mind. Fill your thoughts with holy things—the things of God, Scripture, His promises, His virtues. It will change how you view life.

QUESTIONS

15. Where did Paul leave Titus? _____
16. Who (what position) should be blameless? _____
17. A Bishop (or Pastor) should be a “lover” of what two “things”? _____

FRIDAY—SEPTEMBER 22

DAILY SCRIPTURE READING: 2 Timothy 4

MARK IF READ BONUS PROVERBS 22 PSALM 106-110

2 TIMOTHY 4:11
Only Luke is with me.

Its sad to think that Paul was alone for the most part in the place that he was serving, yet what an encouragement to have a friend like Luke. Consider the mentors in your life. If they were forsaken by all but one, would that one be you? Would you be a Luke? When godly leaders are forsaken by most, would you stay faithfully serving by there side? Would you be an encouraging side kick? There are "Pauls" out there standing for God all alone. By God's grace they will continue to stand, but it would be such an encouragement to have a "Luke" there to lean on for support and encouragement.

QUESTIONS

- 12. Who had forsaken Paul? _____
- 13. Where did he (#11) go? _____

TUESDAY—SEPTEMBER 19

DAILY SCRIPTURE READING: 2 Timothy 1

MARK IF READ BONUS PROVERBS 19 PSALM 91-95

2 TIMOTHY 1:7
For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Fear is something that haunts all of us. I don't mean the right kind of fear the Bible says to have toward God—respect and admiration. I mean a nervousness regarding the circumstances of life. There are many obstacles that we face as we endeavor to do the will of God. It is at these times God says, "Fear not." God is bigger and more mighty than any "giant" we can face. He wants us to have power, love and a sound mind. When you find yourself more overcome by the fear of life rather than the power and love of God, your mind is going to be messed up. Determine by God's grace to have a sound mind.

DAILY SCRIPTURE READING: 2 Timothy 2

☐ MARK IF READ BONUS ☐ PROVERBS 20 ☐ PSALM 96-100

2 TIMOTHY 2:1

Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

Paul challenged his son in the faith—BE STRONG. Don't be weak. Don't be a wimp. Don't be intimidated by the enemy. Stand up for Jesus. Many times, we allow the world to scare us into being cowardly for Christ. We allow the smallest of difficulties to cause us to become discouraged. Be strong—that's a command. Do what it takes to be strong—work out: read your Bible, pray, go to church, be kind to those in need, share the gospel... Here's the key though—it says to be strong in the grace that is in Christ. So be careful in your zeal to be strong that you do not get in the flesh and try to influence others by the worldly means of intimidation. Be graciously strong! ☺

And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

Many of you have learned the Word of God from a very young age—this is a great privilege, although it is not an entitlement. Just because the Scriptures are ABLE to make one wise unto salvation doesn't mean that one is saved. It takes faith in Christ. There is so much that the power of God's Word can do in an individual's life, yet it will do nothing until it is applied. You may have come out of the womb with a New Testament in your hand, but it won't do you any good until you accept it and receive it as your own authority for faith and practice. Establish a personal relationship with Jesus Christ for yourself—that will make all the difference. Watch the holy Scriptures go to work—they will make you usable for the service of the King!
